

My commitment as the family doctor

I join the defined values for the Catalan Society of the General Practitioner which encourage me to be a General Practitioner with:

DEDICATION ...Treating your health as my main priority.

RESPECT ...respecting your dignity, your right of speech, your intimacy and keeping a secret personal information.

PROXIMITY ...treating yourself with warmth, love and courtesy, making sure to understand your emotions and keeping calm in difficult moments.

LOYALTY ...giving you clear and sincere information about your health problems, possible options, the risks, benefits and my advice , attending to your needs and beliefs.

PRUDENCE ...not acting without suitable information, nor recommending actions that haven't been tested, unsure safetiness or that have more risk than benefit.

EQUALITY ...Treating everyone in the same way and using your skills properly with everyone.

HONESTY ...Keeping up to date my knowledge of medicine, always referring to another professional when needed, and not letting personal problems interfere with my commitment.
